"We have delivered strong results through the first half of the year and are encouraged by positive trends in college enrollment, originations, consolidations, and expenses. Strong demand also gives us confidence to raise our originations expectations. We are also updating our EPS and charge-off guidance to reflect expected changes in loan sale premiums and certain credit pressures that we believe will be largely isolated to 2022."

Investor Contact: Brian Cronin, 302-451-0304 brian.cronin@salliemae.com Media Contact: Rick Castellano, 302-451-2541 rick.castellano@salliemae.com The following are significant items or events that occurred in the second quarter of 2022.

Provisions for Credit Losses

Provision for credit losses in the second quarter of 2022 was $31 million, compared with $70 million in the year-ago quarter. During the second quarter of 2022, the provision for credit losses was primarily affected by a $116 million negative provision as a result of the $2.1 billion private education loan sale and improved economic forecasts, which were partially offset by a $51 million increase in provision for new loan commitments. In the year-ago quarter, the provision for credit losses was affected by improved economic forecasts and slower prepayments speeds. Also contributing to the provision for credit losses for the second quarter of 2021 were new provisions for new loan commitments and the adoption of a new default model.

Progress on Balance Sheet and Capital Allocation

Share Repurchases

In the second quarter of 2022, the company repurchased 20 million shares of its common stock at a total cost of $360 million, or an average purchase price of $18.01 per share, under a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan authorized under its share repurchase programs.

From Jan. 1, 2020 through June 30, 2022, the company has repurchased 176 million shares of common stock under its repurchase programs, which represents a 42% reduction in the total number of shares outstanding on Jan. 1, 2020. The company repurchased 30 million shares in the six months ended June 30, 2022 at an average purchase price of $18.15 per share, which is an 11% decrease in shares outstanding since the beginning of 2022. At June 30, 2022, there was $753 million of capacity remaining under the 2022 Share Repurchase Program, which was announced on Jan. 26, 2022 and expires on Repurchases may occur under the company's share repurchase programs from time to time and through a variety of methods, including tender offers, open market repurchases, repurchases effected through Rule 10b5-1 trading plans, negotiated block purchases, accelerated share repurchase programs, or other similar transactions. The timing and volume of any repurchases will be subject to market conditions, and there can be no guarantee that the company will repurchase up to the limit of its share repurchase programs or at all.

The following provides guidance on the company's performance in 2022.

2022, the company expects the following:

- Full-year diluted non-GAAP "Core Earnings" per common share of $2.50 $2.70. Full-year Private Education Loan originations year-over-year growth of 9% 11%. Full-year total loan portfolio net charge-offs of $325 million $345 million.

- Full-year non-interest expenses of $555 million $565 million.
- * See page 6 for a cautionary note regarding forward-looking statements.
-  See Non-GAAP "Core Earnings" to GAAP Reconciliation on page 9 for a description of non-GAAP "Core Earnings". GAAP net income attributable to SLM Corporation common stock is the most directly comparable GAAP measure. However, this GAAP measure is not accessible on a forward-looking basis because the company is unable to estimate the net impact of derivative accounting and the associated net tax expense (benefit) for future periods.

Footnotes:

- (1) Sallie Mae provides non-GAAP "Core Earnings" because it is one of several measures management uses to evaluate management performance and allocate corporate resources. The difference between non-GAAP "Core Earnings" and GAAP net income is driven by mark-to-fair value unrealized gains and losses on derivative contracts recognized in GAAP, but not in non-GAAP "Core Earnings" results. See the Non-GAAP "Core Earnings" to GAAP Reconciliation in this press release for a full reconciliation of GAAP and non-GAAP "Core Earnings." Non-GAAP "Core Earnings" exclude periodic unrealized gains and losses caused by the mark-to-fair value valuations on derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting treatment under GAAP, but include current period accruals on the derivative instruments. Under GAAP, for our derivatives held to maturity, the cumulative net unrealized gain or loss over the life of the contract will be equal to $0. Management believes the company's derivatives are effective economic hedges, and, as such, they are a critical element of the company's interest rate risk management strategy. Our non-GAAP "Core Earnings" are not defined terms within GAAP and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.
- (2) We calculate and report our Return on Assets ("ROA") as the ratio of (a) GAAP net income numerator (annualized) to (b) the GAAP total average assets denominator.
- (3) We calculate and report our non-GAAP "Core Earnings" Return on Assets ("Non-GAAP Core Earnings ROA") as the ratio of (a) non-GAAP "Core Earnings" net income numerator (annualized) to (b) the GAAP total average assets denominator.
- (4) We calculate and report our Return on Common Equity ("ROCE") as the ratio of (a) GAAP net income attributable to common stock numerator (annualized) to (b) the net denominator, which consists of GAAP total average equity less total average preferred stock.
- (5) We calculate and report our non-GAAP "Core Earnings" Return on Common Equity ("Non-GAAP Core Earnings ROCE") as the ratio of (a) non-GAAP "Core Earnings" net income attributable to common stock numerator (annualized) to (b) the net denominator, which consists of GAAP total average equity less total average preferred stock.

⁽¹⁾ Derivative Accounting: Non-GAAP "Core Earnings" exclude periodic unrealized gains and losses caused by the mark-to-fair value valuations on derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting treatment under GAAP, but include current period accruals on the derivative instruments. Under GAAP, for our derivatives held to maturity, the cumulative net unrealized gain or loss over the life of the contract will equal $0.

The following table reflects our provisions for credit losses and total portfolio net charge-offs:

		Three Months Ended June 30,				Six Months Ended June 30,
(Dollars in thousands)	2022 2021 2022		2021		2021
Provisions for credit losses	$	30,545	$	69,677	$	128,595	$	(156,090)
Total portfolio net charge-offs		(96,022)		(43,050)		(172,052)		(90,662)

We evaluate management's performance internally using a measure that starts with non-GAAP "Core Earnings" net income as disclosed above for a period, and further adjusting it by increasing it by the impact of GAAP provisions for credit losses, and decreasing it by the total portfolio net charge-offs recorded in that period, net of the tax impact of these adjustments.

⁽²⁾ Non-GAAP "Core Earnings" tax rate is based on the effective tax rate at Sallie Mae Bank where the derivative instruments are held.
